

Allan Carl Balsler

February 25, 1963 - May 13, 2026

In loving memory of Allan Carl Balsler, age 63, of Halifax, Nova Scotia, who passed away May 13th, 2026.

Allan, was born February 25th, 1963, to George and Brenda Balsler, in Digby, Nova Scotia. Digby was where Allan, would spend his early years, on a waterfront property that would always be referred to as "The Old Homestead". Allan, would later move with his family to Halifax, during the early 1970's.

Allan's passions in life would include music, films and professional wrestling. He was a true maritimer, having lived the majority of his life in Nova Scotia. He loved to be anywhere that was close to the ocean. He also loved seafood, particularly clams. Above all else, he was a very loving father, brother and son.

Allan, was pre-deceased by his father George R. (Bobby) Balsler; brother, Robert Balsler; grandparents Ernest and Irene Balsler; and name-sake uncle, Carl Balsler. He is survived by his son, Kyle Balsler; mother, Brenda Balsler; brothers, Murray and Kevin Balsler; sister, Sheila Bugbee; and brother (in law) Larry Bugbee. He will forever be missed by all, including many loving neices, nephews, cousins and friends.

Funeral services are set to take place at Woodlawn Baptist Cemetery in Digby, where he will be laid to rest eternally, surrounded by his loving family.
