He cherished the summers spent at Northport and Amherst Shore.

Angus worked his way up from sweeping floors to becoming a Vice President of Premdor, a role he held with great pride. He was especially proud of the opportunities this success allowed him to provide for his family. Angus leaves behind a legacy of love, hard work, and devotion to those closest to him. His family and friends will forever carry his memory in their hearts. The family would like to extend their heartfelt thanks to the VON teams in Amherst and Halifax for their compassionate care.
