“ Brenda Lee, Brian and family. It is with sadness that I write this note. Anne and I met in Toronto in 1997/98 when we both worked at the King's Health Centre. It didn't take long before Anne and I were great friends. We shared a lot of laughs and stories about our childhood, and I felt that I knew Brenda Lee and Brian as she spoke of them often. She was like a sister to me. Over the years we have kept in touch and did so up until the end. Anne's one trait that was undeniable was her ability to see the humour in everyday life. She spoke very highly of her friends--some of whom I met. She worked at her friendships and we all benefitted from that. I for one will miss her and our "chats". Rest in Peace Anne. John McGrath

“ Words cannot truly express my profound sorrow at the loss of my dear, cherished and beloved friend, Anne Louise McClair. She was an incandescent light that shone brightly and departed this world far too soon. Her joie de vivre and sparkle, were evidenced by her beautiful smile.

We have been close friends for the last 40 years, when we met taking business courses. Anne exemplified professionalism in her style and in her dedication to hard work and excellence. These attributes resulted in a successful career in nursing and medical administration in Halifax and in Toronto, where she earned the respect of her colleagues and the adoration of patients.

Anne loved to have fun and we shared many incredibly funny times; especially when she was teaching me how to ski, which often resulted in gales of laughter for both of us. Her keen intellect and constant interest in a wide variety of subjects always resulted in our having fascinating discussions. In fact, we both decided it was absolutely necessary to learn how to distinguish really good champagnes and proceeded to sample a wide variety of the NSLC's finest selection!

Anne was there for the sad times, too, as there will always be challenges and tears. She was fiercely loyal, supportive and always offered caring words of solace. When the chips were down, you wanted to have her in your corner.

Of greatest importance, was Anne's incredible compassion and concern for other people's pain. When her beloved Harley came into her life, she had him certified as a therapy dog and regularly visited seniors' homes and hospitals to bring joy to residents and to brighten their days.

Her grace and dignity during her illness were inspiring and she leaves a legacy of love, generosity and kindness, for all of us who had been blessed to have known her.

Good Bye, my dear, sweet friend; you are now free to fly with the angels.

“ Anne was such a loving soul, giving and caring sacrificially for others, with little fanfare or acknowledgement, because she truly loved people and animals. A wonderful inspiration for all of us. I will miss her lovingkindness, generosity, compassion, spicy wit and laugh. She enriched all who knew her and came within her sphere - whether it be family, friend or stranger. We are all lessened by her absence. Sweet rest, my dear Anne.

“ Anne was such a loving kind compassionate women who always thought of others and the well being of animals first. She dedicated her time to volunteering at old folks homes with her Great Dane Harley to brighten their days she wanted to share him with the world and bring joy and happiness to anybody who came in contact with them. She was an inspiration to always think of what you can do for others less fortunate. I was honoured to consider her family she will be greatly missed and her compassionate nature will be well remembered for years to come

I knew Anne through her good friend and my sister, Anne Thompson. Anne M was always so positive despite many setbacks and the world has lost a bright spark with her passing. I am glad to have shared time with her at our family gatherings.

“ My once Ina lifetime friendship with Anne. We started as coworkers and became bestfriends. We shared our love of fitness and animals I was so lucky to earn to title family with her. She loved and cherished my children they considered her a second mother and she thought of them as her own. She always looked at the positive in any situation and never let any hardship break her spirt. She will forever be cherished by my family and greatly missed. She’s an Angel with her beloved dog Harley looking down on us for eternity.

I am truly heartbroken that my little sister Anne has passed on. I was so fortunate to be able to talk with her almost daily over the years, am really missing her. However, I know she suffered so much with her health, that I take some comfort knowing she is no longer in pain. I have many wonderful memories that I will carry with me forever in my heart, as she now rests in peace.

“Anne shared her love of Harley with many people but nothing made her happier than when he became a Certified Therapy Dog with St. John Ambulance . They never missed a call when needed and made weekly visits to various hospitals and senior homes. Anne always ended her calls with "I love you " I love you too sweet cousin, I will forever miss you .
