

Brian David Johnson

September 29, 1955 - October 29, 2025

September 29, 1955 – October 29, 2025

With profound sadness and shock, the family of Brian David Johnson announces his tragic passing on October 29, 2025, at the age of 70. Brian's life was cut short by a senseless act of violence, leaving those who cared for him heartbroken and mourning a loss that should never have occurred. Born on September 29, 1955, Brian lived a life marked by resilience, a quiet depth of feeling, and a steadfast—if often unspoken—love for his family.

Brian is survived by his siblings Joseph Johnson (the eldest), Diane Poirier, Rita Sage, Linda Flanders, Allan Johnson, and Derek Johnson. He is predeceased by his brothers Robert Johnson and Michael Johnson, as well as his parents, Marie Johnson and Matthew Johnson. Though relationships and circumstances were not always easy, Brian's connection to his family remained meaningful to him throughout his life. In his heart, they were never far away.

He is also lovingly remembered by Nancy Johnson, the devoted wife of his late brother Robert, whom Brian named as his next of kin. Nancy remained a steady and compassionate presence in Brian's life, ensuring he had support, conversation, and care through every season. Her loyalty and kindness brought him comfort and stability, especially in the years leading up to his passing.

Brian will be deeply missed by his nieces and nephews, especially Leah, Karen, and Michael Johnson, the children of his late brother Robert and Nancy. He shared many Christmases and family gatherings with them throughout the years up until Robert's passing, and he continued to stay connected with them afterward. Those memories—and the lasting bonds formed in those times—held a special place in his heart.

Remembered for his good heart, gentle humor, and the quiet generosity he showed in his own way, Brian leaves behind a legacy defined by endurance and love. Though he faced many personal trials, he never let them extinguish his capacity to care. Family remained important to him—deeply, sincerely, and always.

Brian's passing is an immeasurable and heartbreaking loss. Those who knew him mourn not only the man he was, but the years and moments unjustly taken from him. He will be remembered with love, with sorrow, and with the hope that he now rests in peace, reunited with those who went before him. Forever missed and forever loved “ Uncle Brian was that unforgettable cool uncle who, back in the day, had the hip records and groovy blacklight posters in his downstairs bedroom. To me, he always felt a little elusive and mysterious. As I grew older, I came to know him more deeply as a gentle, gracious man -- sensitive, tender-hearted, and unfailingly kind.

Though his life was marked by many struggles and personal battles, I know that he opened his heart to Christ many years ago. And though his life was tragically taken far too soon, I find comfort in my belief that God's love followed him into every dark valley, and has now led him safely home.

Rest easy, Uncle Brian.

“ Brian grew up in Fairview, lost his best friend in a car accident while in high school. In the car were other friends and he had a hard time through life dealing with the tragedy. He was a quiet and kind soul that would do anything he could to give and support another person he encountered in life. He was a true Fairview boy protecting and loving the less vulnerable, though he was taken , shot down, while vulnerable himself. May you rest in Peace Brian and reunite with those who loved you most.

“ I enjoyed my conversations with Uncle Brian. We talked a lot about this crazy world we live in, the circus of politics, Dad, and family. He was always sincerely interested in what I was up to and how I was doing, and he was always so positive and so grateful for everything. We were supposed to get together before Christmas this year so he could meet my daughter. I wish she had met him. I tell her about him - that he was Granddad's brother - and that he would have loved her <3
