

David Maxwell Millar

April 13, 1939 - March 26, 2026

It is with great sadness and much love that we mourn the passing of David Millar of Belle Cote, Nova Scotia.

David will be lovingly remembered by his three children, Ord, Mary and James; his two grandsons, Reid and David; his sister Eileen; his niece, Sally; and his nephews, Gareth and Finn.

David was predeceased by his loving wife of 51 years, Isobel Millar (nee Reid); and his parents, Annie Kerr Campbell Millar (nee Maxwell) and David Millar.

David will also be missed by the congregation of Calvin United Church, as well as many friends in Belle Cote and Margaree Harbour.

David was born in Glasgow, Scotland and raised in Stirling, Scotland. He moved to Canada in 1967 and lived in Montreal until he retired in 1999 after his lifelong career as an actuary for Standard Life Assurance Company. Upon his retirement he moved to Belle Cote.

David will be remembered for his intelligence, his sharp wit, his sense of humour and for being a kind, loving and generous man to his family and friends.

The family have chosen to have a private celebration of life.

Tribute Wall

MM

“ We are going to miss our dinners and conversations with David. He was an amazing guy with such an incredible sense of humour. He was a great chef and we are really going to miss his (and Isobel’s) chocolate mousse! Our condolences to all the family. Monica & Mike Murphy

Monuca Murphy - April 11 at 06:38 PM

EM

“ When the Millar siblings were in Stirling High School, one of them won an amazing scholarship to St. Andrews University. In celebration the whole school was given a day off!! If you are wondering who the genius was, here’s a clue it wasn’t Eileen!! He will be sadly missed by his whole family. Thoughts and prayers to you all, Eileen.

Eileen Maurice - April 10 at 03:10 PM