

Diane La Forest Evans

March 10, 1961 - May 7, 2023

Halifax — I have loved my life to the highest degree anyone ever could have. I have been so blessed through this crazy journey.

I was given the most amazing parents, Gertrude and Dollard Laforest, who taught us we could do anything. To my sister Dawn, the backbone of the family, thank you for your love and support. To Mark, thank you for your patience. To my nephew Justin, much love and strength to you.

To Peter, Thank you for your support and being there for our son.

To my reason to breathe, my everyday joy, my proudest accomplishment, my heart, my son Andrew. You have made me into the most amazing human. You have given me a lifetime of love, adventure, and amazement. There isn't a day since I've had you that I have not felt complete and whole Love. I don't know what I did in my life to deserve you and my family.

I have been blessed with so many amazing friendships along the way. To my friends Anne, Gina, T.L, Tanya and Fern, thank you for the many adventures and so much love.

To my work family at Air Canada Jazz, I cherish every second I had with you.

To my team of doctors and nurses, thank you for your care and humanity

My angels will be there to meet me, my sister and best-friend Patti, my father, my Nanny, and so many more.

There is no need to worry I won't be alone.

A private service will be held at the Elmwood Cemetery in Moncton N.B.

“ My deepest sympathies to the La Forest Evans family. It wasn't often that Diane and I worked together . However , when we did I always admired that so much energy and spunk came in such a small little package! The saying “small but mighty “ definitely applied to Diane!

Many of us raised our families throughout our time at Jazz . When you had a chance to work together it was always fun to catch up on all that was happening. Whenever the topic of children came up (as it did) Diane always spoke with such pride and joy when talking about her son Andrew . What beautiful words were written by Diane about how truly blessed she felt to have all those special people in her life.

Thinking of you,
