

Frederick Calnan-Morash

December 23, 1948 - December 4, 2024

Frederick Calnen-Morash, age 75 of Middle Sackville Nova Scotia, passed peacefully on December 4 ,2024 at the QE2 hospital in Halifax Nova Scotia. Frederick (Fred), was born on December 23 1948 to Mary Lively-Morash and Jeremiah Calnen in Halifax Nova Scotia.

Frederick is survived by his wife Marie Morash, his step son Anthony Dube, his daughter Erica Calnen, his step daughters Cindy Dube and Joann Plehn and his son Jason Fredrick Morash, his grandchildren Charlie Morash (Jason Morash), and Sarah and Mary (Erica Calnen).

Frederick had a great love for the outdoors, especially being in the woods. He worked as a logger, lumberjack and machine operator. He also worked and lived for a period of time, in Alberta Canada.

Frederick was a great story teller, he especially loved telling stories of being a woodsman.

Frederick will be dearly missed by his friends and family.

Donations in lieu of flowers, can be made to the Alzheimer's Society of Nova Scotia in memory of Fred.

Final resting arrangements will be made by the family at a later date.

Tribute Wall

AK

“ Dear Marie and family We just heard of Fred's passing, we did not realize he was sick. He was such a kind man. Thinking of you all at this most difficult time. Brother Donald, Anne & family.

Anne Kelly - December 15, 2024 at 08:34 PM

WC

“ sorry to hear about your passing Fred ... we only met couple of times in the 1960's up at uncle Jerry's and Aunt Mary's home in Windsor Junction. your cousin William Jeremiah Calnen of Dartmouth, Nova Scotia ... formerly of Green Acres in Spryfield (Halifax).

William J. Calnen - December 10, 2024 at 10:09 AM