

Gerry "Clyde" White

September 12, 1955 - November 11, 2023

Gerry "Clyde" White, 68, born in Markland Cottage Hospital, Newfoundland, died suddenly on November 11, 2023 in his home in Halifax, Nova Scotia. Gerry moved to Nova Scotia as a teenager in the 1970's along with his family, but he never lost his strong Newfoundland accent. Gerry worked in construction for several years, helping to build many houses and buildings across Halifax, and later worked as a Commissionaire on the Halifax Harbour. Gerry was described as having a "large presence" in any room, had a wonderful sense of humour and the gift of gab. Gerry enjoyed going for walks in his community, visiting the South Shore and attending his church. Gerry was a proud, devoted father to his two children Melaney and Gerry Clyde Junior. Gerry was predeceased by his father Ross and his brother Owen. He is survived by his mother Edna White (Crocker), and siblings Perry, Brenda, Roxanne and Pamela. Gerry will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

A church service will take place at Saint Margaret of Scotland Church at 3751 Robie Street on Friday, December 1 at 4 PM.
