“ On behalf of myself, my husband Olusegun and our family, we want to extend our heartfelt condolences to Dwana and the Family. May your hearts be fill with many memories of Harold. We all can appreciate the wonderful promise that Almighty God will do. In Isaiah 25: 8 "God will actually swallow up death forever, and the sovereign Lord God will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." This is something we all can look forward to. May He give you the comfort and peace you need to get through this most difficult time in your lives and may Harold rest in God's Sweet, Eternal and Heavenly peace. Our thoughts and prayers are with each of you today and in the days ahead.

“ On behalf of myself and my family, I want to extend our heartfelt condolences to my Godson Matthew, Shawna, Neathen, Dwana, Charlotte and Lennox on Harold's passing. Harold was a longtime family friend along with his late wife, Patrice who allowed my late husband and I to be their son, Matthew's Godparents. Even though we hadn't seen each other in a while when we did meet it was just like we had seen each other the day before. Harold was a true friend who gave what he had whether it was little or much and was always the life of the party with his jokes and big smile. May you finally rest in peace Harold and may those left behind to mourn your loss know that God is only a whisper away. Sending virtual hugs to all.

I would like to express our sincere condolences to the Bishop family from the Gannon family. Harold was a childhood friend and I have many fond memories of him, Sally and Dwana growing up on Creighton Street. Harold is gone much too young but he will not be forgotten. I will pray that God gives his children and Dwana the strength to get through this difficult time. May God keep you and bless you all.
