June 24, 1928 - June 4, 2026

Inga Maude WILSON

Has passed away at the White Hills Care home in Hammonds Plains on Thursday June 4, 2026, Born in Cherryhill, NS to the late Wade and Vera Bowers (Nee Conrad). She worked for Simpson Sears Co. for a few years, until she met the love of her life, Carl Wilson. After marriage she stayed at home, and as their three boys came along, she brought them up while Carl worked for CN Rail. Many times, she travelled with her husband on the back and forth to Montreal. As time went on, they bought a place in Clearwater, Florida, and it was sold after Carls passing. She loved to paint, and a number of paintings are still in the home in Black Point, NS. She bred Siamese cats, and a few years before she went to the home a black cat named Sonny Boy ended up in the yard fairly often. After a discussion with his owner, he was adopted. He was given the name Ace and lived at the house till Gary passed. She is survived by her son Wade, sister, Betty Wentzell, seven grandchildren, Garnett Wilson, Darren Wilson, Michael Manuel, Angela Gagnon, Dawn Wilson, Hollie Manuel and Aaron Wilson. She is predeceased by her husband Carl, sons, Wayne and Gary; sister, Myrtle. Cremation has taken place under the direction of Harbourside Crematorium. Burial will take place when it's convenient for other family members to be there. A celebration of life will be held at a later date.
