

Iris Miriam Crowell

October 21, 2023

Iris Miriam (Webber) Crowell

August 7, 1937 - October 21, 2023

We are deeply saddened to announce the passing of our dear mother Iris on Saturday, October 21, 2023 in the company of her niece, great-niece and daughter.

Born August 7, 1937 in Halifax, Nova Scotia to Henry and Dora (Lewis) Webber, she was predeceased by her parents, husband Burton Crowell, brothers Terry and Arthur Webber, and grandson Justin Crowell. She is survived by brother Ronald (Marie), sons Michael (Gwen) and Bruce, daughter Jodi, grandchildren Logan (Hilary), Timothy (Frances) and Julie Anne (Nick), great-grandchildren Angus, Olive, Wesley, and Nellie, as well as many much-loved extended family and friends.

In her youth, Iris worked as an operator at MT&T in Halifax before her marriage on January 31, 1970. She then devoted herself as wife, mother, and friend. She was active in the the church of Saint Francis by the Lakes prior to its building on First Lake Drive and later joined All Saints Anglican Church in Bedford, all the while keeping in touch with her home church Saint James Anglican Church, Upper Lakeville.

She enjoyed camping and travelling and had many trips across Canada and the States with friends and family. She was still happiest with a group of friends and family. Mom was frequently doing something creative, whether it was fabric painting, tole painting, knitting, crocheting, or cross-stitching, only giving them up when her eyesight and arthritis became prohibitive.

Many thanks to the staff on 7.1 at the Halifax Infirmary, the staff on 5A at the VG and all other members of her health care team for their excellent care, collaboration and open communication during her hospitalization.

Cremation has taken place at Harbourside Regional Crematorium with burial in Upper Lakeville at a later date.

Funeral service will be held at All Saints Anglican Church in Bedford, on Friday, October 27 at 3pm with reception to follow.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Canadian Cancer Society or charity of one's choice.