

James Arthur Hatfield

March 19, 1956 - May 1, 2024

James Arthur Hatfield, Truro, NS

On May 1st, 2024, James “Jim” Arthur Hatfield, 68, Truro, passed away at the Colchester East Hants Health Centre.

Born in Yarmouth, Nova Scotia on March 19, 1956, James was the second son of the late Charles Israel and Theresa Marie (MacKay) Hatfield .

Educated in Truro at St. Mary’s School, Truro Junior High School, and Cobequid Educational Centre, Jim developed an interest in writing and the audio-visual arts. His greatest passion centred on vintage films and early television series from the fifties, sixties, and seventies. His extensive knowledge of Hollywood stars of both the silver screen and early television could provide both entertaining and informative conversations when in his company. In his younger years, Jim worked in various customer service positions after honing his service skills at his parents’ convenience store.

Jim leaves in mourning his brother John Charles (René Lamontagne ); his sisters Joanne Marie (Terry Higgins) and Dawn Michelle (Jean-Francois Laflèche); his nieces Julia Elizabeth, Anna Sophia, and their father, Mark Hamilton; his loving aunt and uncle Rosaria and Dominic Rovero; as well as numerous cousins from both the MacKay and Hatfield families.

The Hatfield family would like to extend their sincere appreciation to Dr. David Henderson and his palliative care staff at the Colchester East Hants Health Centre Palliative Care Unit for the attentive and compassionate care which Jim received during his stay with them.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Jim's name to the palliative care unit of the Colchester East Hants Health Centre.

A private family service will be held at a later date determined by Jim's immediate family.

Tribute Wall

ML

“ I had known Jim back in the early 80s. I'm very saddened to hear that Jim has passed away. My deepest condolences to his Family for their loss.

---

Michael Leclair - July 19, 2025 at 07:02 PM