

Joanne Mae Hunt

March 21, 1962 - December 8, 2024

With heavy hearts, my sister and I announce the passing of our mother Joanne Mae Hunt who left us on Sunday December 8th at the age of 62. Born on March 21 1962. she was a Daughter, mother, grandmother, and sister, who lived a life filled with both struggles and moments of great joy.

Moms journey was not always an easy one, but through it all, she carried a love for her family that never wavered. Especially Her love for her many grandchildren, who brought light and laughter into her life. Her eyes would light up at the sound of their voices, and her heart swelled with pride when she spoke of them.

Mom was a lover of music,dancing in her younger years, all things that sparkled, butterflies,Danielle Steele novels and her Gingerale!

While her life on Earth was marked by challenges, Mom was never one to give up. She faced hardships with courage,She may have struggled, but she also loved fiercely and lived with a heart full of hope.

Mom leaves behind her two daughters Jennifer(mark)and Tara (Jeff) her many grandchildren, her mother Valera and her two siblings, and many other family who will remember her for her big heart.

Rest in heavenly peace, mom. In the arms of your dad. You are forever in our hearts, and may you now be surrounded by butterflies and the sparkle of stars. You were always enough mom. Love always your girls.

Final resting arrangements and celebration of life will be made by family in the new year.

“ Sincerest condolences to all of Joanne’s family. I remember in our younger years spending fun times with cousin Joanne at Nan and Pop Keeping’s in Indian Point. The tribute you wrote for your mom Jennifer is beautiful. Hopefully your memories of Joanne and the support of family and friends will help you through this most difficult time of loss and sadness. Thinking of you all. RIP cousin Joanne.

“ I will always remember Joanne's laugh and how when me and Jennifer were much younger she was such a life of the party. Jennifer(mark and kids), Tara( Jeff and kids), Cindy ( George), Kenny ( Joanne) and Valeria; my thoughts and condolences are with you all. I hope you find some peace in knowing Joanne is no longer suffering. Hold on to all your happy times you shared.
