

Joseph Donat LeBlanc

October 29, 1941 - December 3, 2024

Joseph Donat LeBlanc passed on December 3, 2024 surrounded by his family and Rev. Brenda Clark.

Born in Ansonville Ontario, he was the youngest son (13 siblings) of the late Hector and Albertine (Ducharme) LeBlanc.

He worked as a paper maker at Abitibi - Iroquois Falls Ontario, later at Farmers - Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Joe was a jovial man. He was very kind, easy going and loving. He made friends easily. He enjoyed his time as a member at the Fairview legion where he liked to play darts with his friends. He also loved to walk the trails and never missed a Montreal Canadiens' hockey game.

He is survived by his wife Shirley, and her children; Kim (Bruce), Brian (Carmen) and James (Lana).

His grandsons; Ben (Bri), Luke, and Jack. Granddaughters, Bryanna, Brooke, and Rayne.

Five great grandchildren to date and several nieces and nephews. We will never forget your quick wit and dad jokes accompanied with your genuine smile.

The family would like to send a special thanks to continuing care, palliative care, and Hospice Halifax for making Joe's last few weeks comfortable.

Celebration of Joe's life will be held on Friday January 3, 2025, at the Peregrine Club (Royal Naval Assoc) from 1pm-4pm.

Located at 3660 Commission Street, Halifax. (Suite C - lower level)
