

Judith Rose Lisson

July 6, 1942 - November 25, 2025

Judith Rose Lisson, 83, of Sackville, Nova Scotia, passed away peacefully on November 25, 2025, with her daughter, and the loving caregivers and staff of Oakwood Terrace by her side.

Judy was born on July 6, 1942, in Levack, Ontario to the late Lionel and Gladys Mason. She was raised at the family homestead in Tangier, Nova Scotia and as the eldest girl of ten kids, had a busy and lively childhood.

Judy married the love of her life, Russell Lisson, in 1962 and they began their life together in Montreal, Quebec – creating a community of friends, travelling the world, experiencing fine dining, and the arts, all before starting their family in 1970. She will be remembered for her love of life and family, cooking and providing many joy-filled nights spent around the table talking and making memories, her love of animals and the beautiful standard poodles she always had by her side, and her unwavering commitment to her husband - in love, in life and in business as they became self-employed and owned and operated their own business for many years.

She is survived by her son, Richard (Lori) and daughter Jaye, her granddaughter Hannah, her sisters: Heather (Clare), Patricia (Colin), Nancy (Henry), and brothers: Stephen, Stuart (Vianne), Stanley (Mary), Stacey (Marlene) and Christopher (Monica). She was predeceased by her brother Lionel (Diane), her father Lionel, her mother Gladys and her youngest daughter Tara.

A funeral service will be held at St. John the Evangelist Anglican Church at 954 Old Sackville Road in Middle Sackville on Friday December 5, at 11:00 a.m. with a reception to follow. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Alzheimer Society of Canada – your donation brings hope to people living with dementia.

Tribute Wall

“ Beautiful in Blue was purchased for the family of Judith Rose Lisson.

December 02, 2025 at 06:59 PM