Lucy M Paris

(Margarite Lucie Amato)

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Lucy M Paris 94 years old.

Lucy was born Nov 25, 1929 to Mabel Amato/Swift (Alook) and Joseph Giuseppe Amato

She was the last living sibling to Joseph, John, Catherine and George.

Nan Lucy (as the world lovingly called her) was as big hearted as she was hard working. Moving from Alberta to Nova Scotia in the 50s with her husband Clyde Parker Paris sr. She made many friends and new family.

Lucy leaves behind a legacy filled with love her daughter Debra, son Clyde and wife Deborah. Grand daughters Tonya, Megan and Nina. Grandson David. Great grandchildren Jourdin, DJ, Ommyo, Davida, David, Deon, Trey, Nyomi, Jayen, Marley, Lance, Parker, Jarvis, Logan, Obie, Oak and Louie.

Great great grandchildren, Derrick, Trevez, Nahmir and special great great grandchildren Jaydis and Leia.

Granddaughter in love...Aaron (thank you for every minute)

She was predeceased by her grandson (Booba)Lance and her daughter Diane.

The family would like thank Muin Paul for the beautiful songs and drumming you did for her.

The staff at Dartmouth General 4th floor.

Her remains have been entrusted to Harbourside Crematorium.

As per Lucy's request there will be no formal service, just a private gathering with family on what would've been her 95th birthday.

In lieu of flowers, please- just pay it forward

Today I saw 100 sparrows not knowing they were called a "Ubiquity"  -the ability to be everywhere at anytime.-

We love you Nanny Lucy!
