In Loving Memory

Lynn Theresa Cooke

Born on March 21, 1952, passed away at home on April 22, 2026, Lynn was raised in Halifax, where she built a life rooted in love, laughter, and meaningful connections. She was known for her vibrant spirit—someone who could brighten up any room simply by being in it. Lynn loved to dance and play crib, and her quick wit and sense of humour brought joy and laughter to everyone around her.

Lynn had a heart that was always open. She welcomed everyone with kindness and generosity, often putting others before herself. Whether it was offering a warm meal, sharing clothing, or simply providing a place to feel safe and cared for, She gave freely and without hesitation.

She was a devoted mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She is lovingly remembered by her son Jeff and her daughter Laurie; her cherished grandchildren Riley, Jordan—her pride and joy—Rihanna, Elijah, and Aydyn; and her two beloved great-grandsons, Kai and Leander, who brought her immense pride. She is also survived by her brother Jim and his wife Wanda. Lynn was predeceased by her beloved partner Cecil, her brother Brian, and her mother Aileen.

Her legacy of love, laughter, and kindness will live on in the hearts of all who loved her.

Rest in paradise, Momma. I love you forever.
