“ It's taken me a long time to find a place where I could leave a tribute to Lynn. I met her when she lived in Miramichi, NB, in the late '80s, early 90's. She was an energetic, fit, funny and fun-loving person. Her skill at any game of cards was astounding but no one ever minded losing to her because she was so magical at pulling together a winning hand. My husband and I enjoyed many Saturday evening dinner and games nights with Lynn and Lindsay and all were marked by good spirits and laughter. Lynn was a joy to be around. We gradually lost touch after she moved out west and didn't reconnect when she returned to the Maritimes, but I will always remember Lynn as a warm, witty companion and join the many friends and family who mourn her passing. It's hard to accept her bright light is gone.
