What can you say about someone shared all the same things as yourself...from as early as I can remember our families were entwined. The best memory for me goes back a very long way. Suzanne with her brilliant curls was a Ballerina in pink!!!

“ More than three years ago I was looking for ceramic classes and I met Susy. I took some courses with her.

Today, after a slow surgical recovery, I decided to enroll again in a ceramics course and looking for Susy, I found out this sad news. My condolences to her partner and family. Susy was a great teacher, who taught me a lot about pottery. I share here a photo of a Christmas cactus that Susy so generously gave to me (3 years ago) inside of one of my first pots, which she helped to make.
