“ I worked with Phil for many years and like many, I hardly knew him. Phil was a story teller and mastered tv way ahead of his time. I think this was one of his best:

I had the pleasure of knowing Phil for the last three years as one of his golf buddies at Brightwood Golf Club. No round of golf was ever boring with Phil- he entertained us with his wild attire, his wit, corny jokes, spontaneous singing ,booming broadcaster voice and of course the enhanced golf videos of his buddies. We will miss him a lot and I'm thankful I had the opportunity of knowing him -he was one of a kind. Phil lived life to the fullest to the very end despite his health issues. My sincere condolences to his family.

Many years ago, when we purchased the Russell St house next door, Phil instigated removing part of the fence between the two properties in order to make it easier to visit the guys on the back deck on the warm summer days....We are sending our condolences to his children on his recent passing.
