“ I have fond memories of Bob growing up. He lived across the street from us and hung around with my two brother Bruce and Bill(Daurie). I remember one time Bob and my brother played a joke on my Dad.They called a undertaker to come and pick up my Dad body. I can still remember the look on my Dad's face when he answered the door.so glad I got to see Bob at the reunion. Rip Bob. You will join a great group of Fairview guys including my brother Bruce.
Prayers to the family Linda Smith(Daurie)

“ I remember Uncle Bob as a quiet guy who seemed to revel in family gatherings. Wished I had the opportunity to really get to know him during my adult years. I'm sure we would have had many things in common to talk and laugh about. He will be greatly missed. Love you Shirley.

“ Bobby was more than an Uncle to me. He always had that little laugh and hidden smile like he knew something that you didn't. He's the guy you wanted to sit at the bar with, hoist a beer and have a chat. He always cared and he showed it. I loved him for that. Rest In Peace, Bobby. Much love to you and Auntie.
