ROBERT (Bobby) W. RICHARDS

1949-2023

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of “Bobby Richards” on March 3, 2023. There by his side until the end, his wife of 16 years Lisa Lovett and stepson Ryan. Bobby leaves behind his three children, Michelle, Troy and Nicki, and eight grandchildren.

Bobby was predeceased by his father, Hazen Richards, and is survived by his brothers Ronnie (Winnie) Richards, Allen (Barb) Richards and Ross (Tanya) Richards. Bobby is also survived by his mother Isabel (Grouchy) Bobby, whom he said was the best mom anyone could have.

Bobby’s career was adventurous! During his younger years Bobby drove a cab in Sydney, he then went west to work on Prairie Rose Farm, then to Macfarlanes Construction, finally Bobby decided try his hand at driving the Big Rigs. From New Hope Transport all the way back to Dartmouth, where he resided doing local hauling within the provinces.

Soon after marrying Lisa, Bobby’s adventures took a toll on his health, and he had to retire due to health reasons. Bobby then started a new career: a Domestic Engineer! staying home while his wife drove the Big Rigs. Every morning Bobby was up to see Lisa off to work. Some of Bobby favourite pastimes were gardening, painting rocks, politics, and playing trivia pursuit on our 95.7 talk radio, which gave him the nickname of “Trivia Bob.”

As per Bobby’s wishes, Cremation has taken place, and there will be a small graveside service in the summer, in Lake Charlotte. Bobby wanted his friends to know that he slipped away and is onto bigger and better things and to remember Some Days Are Diamonds and Some Days Are Stones. “See you on the other side 10-4”.

“ Bob was a customer at my work for about 15 yrs. We always had funny, saucy banter everytime he'd come in, or even if I ran into him in the mall. He was a funny, sarcastic fella and I'm sure friends and family will miss that.
