“ I was very sad to hear the news of Ryan's passing. We were business partners who became friends. He had a passion for anything he was involved with - but his biggest passion and devotion was to his children who he loved dearly. My deepest condolences to his mother Valerie and his two beautiful children.

“ My deepest condolences to his family.
I worked the back shift at the Casino with Ryan . At some point it was just him and I left on the bar dealing with the late night crowd . He would leave his other job and come to the Casino at midnight after already working a full shift . I use to tease him about his wrinkled uniform they he would stuff in his locker . We had some laughs and had each other's backs . It's very sad to hear the news , it still doesn't seem real Agin my Condolences, very sad -way to young .
