

Sharon Lynn Haddock

March 11, 1950 - September 29, 2023

Sharon Lynn Haddock 1950-2024 Sharon Lynn (Snair) Haddock, 74 of Bridgewater, passed away on September 29th, 2024 at Yarmouth Regional Hospital surrounded by her loving family following a very brief but complicated illness. Sharon was born in Halifax March 11th, 1950, the second child of Roy and Glenville Snair. She is survived by her loving husband David, sons Kirk (Susan), Cory and Nicholas (Diana), Grandchildren, Tyler Joshua, Keira Ann, Nicki Jon, David Leslie, and step granddaughters Jericah Wilson and Candace Fox. She is survived by siblings, Sisters Cynthia (Brian) Wilson, Glennie (Mitchell) Fancey, Sherri Hayes, Brother Dwight Snair. Predeceased by son David Jonathon, brother Gregory Snair, and her parents. Sharon grew up in Halifax where she met and fell in love with David. After a two-year courtship they married in 1976 in Chester. In later years you rarely saw one without the other. Before marriage Sharon operated a daycare and continued for several years after marriage. When her boys were older Sharon returned to school and obtained her CNA diploma. She worked at South Shore Regional hospital for 5 years before moving to addiction services for 20 years at Fisherman's Memorial Hospital in Lunenburg. Sharon delighted in cooking and baking and made many deliveries to Soul's Harbour. She and David enjoyed delivering Meals on Wheels in Bridgewater. Since 1997 they hosted over 50 international students, many who have maintained contact over the years. For many years Sharon and David enjoyed camping with Seabreeze Campers and in PEI at Twin Shores Campground. Sharon was an active member of the New Cornwall Baptist Church where her funeral will be held on Saturday October 5th at 2:00 p.m. with Reverend Tom Davidson officiating. Reception to follow at the Church.
