“ Terri could always make you smile with that deep belly laugh of hers. Who could forget the good times at the Academy, aka Sears with Terri. Either at work, or off work having fun singing or dancing at our parties; she was the belle of the ball. People were drawn to her laughter and her friendliness. Over the years, we lost contact and I regret it as I was the one who lost out. I thought of her and will continue to; praying for peace that she deserved. Rest well my friend. Condolences to Adam and Sarah, and Larry. Keep in touch.
