“ So very hard to believe you are gone. Will never forget our trip to Europe & getting lost so often, especially in Zurich & Hanover, Germany. Glad to have shared that journey with you and Wendy; trying to find our apt in Paris after our night out, conquering the subway system, & helping me get our rental manual vehicle out of the garage in Paris!

Will miss your dry sense of humour, evenings of playing pool, poorly, but playing in any event, endless card games and get togethers over the years.

May you be at peace where there is no physical suffering and irony and humour surround you. You will be missed Tim but also will be remembered!

“ I don't think there was ever a time when we met Timmy that there wasn't a smile on his face. He made everyone laugh, like he was telling the same joke for the very first time. I remember him and his friend Colin losing their minds laughing, while Wendy and Stephanie rolled their eyes because they heard it for the 100 th time. He was quiet and kind and a great friend to my family. He will be missed.

We send our condolences to Wendy and family and believe for God's strength in this difficult time. Xo Lisa and Jamie Sephton “ Well Sir this has to be one of the hardest things I've ever written.

How do I say goodbye? 💔 I can only take comfort in knowing that you are no longer suffering.

*I want to thank you for ALWAYS being there for me and my family.
My children consider You and Wendy their Aunt & Uncle. ❤️ Thank you for being the best man at our wedding. For the countless times you helped us move, fix things around the house and all the times you helped the Young family too! Thank you for your silly jokes and all the laughs we had.*

We've shared 30+ years of Saturday night cards, Sunday ball games, pool parties, BBQ's, holidays, countless outings and so many inside jokes that only the 4 of us understand. (to the stairs)

It is truly my pleasure to call you my friend for all these years. You will be sadly missed and deeply remembered.

Timmy, May you rest in peace my friend ❤️

Love ALWAYS Steph
